Affordable Care Act Resources

www.coveredca.com

This is the site for Covered California, our state's health benefit exchange, which is charged with implementing the ACA in our state.

https://www.healthcare.gov/

This is the federal government's main ACA site.

Kff.org

The noprofit Kaiser Family Foundation site has information about the law and its requirements, as well as policy summaries.

Familiesusa.org

This is an advocacy group based in Washington DC that provides information designated to help low income people gain coverage. It also has fact sheets and information on the ACA that are relevant to other groups of people, such as young adults.

Healthlawguide.aarp.org

The AARP's website includes a section on the ACA that is designed to answer questions from seniors.

Healthlawguideforbusiness.org

This site is a project of The California Endowment and business entities, such as the Silicon Valley Leadership Group, major Chambers of Commerce, and ethnic chambers and is designed to provide information most important to employers and employees.