

Allergic Reaction: Acute onset cutaneous reactions, e.g. hives, pruritus, flushing, rash, or angioedema not involving the airway.
Anaphylaxis: Abnormal appearance, Altered Mental status, Signs of diminished perfusion, Respiratory distress, Stridor, Bradycardia, SpO2 < 94%

